

THE FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Publisher.

A WEEKLY PAPER—DEVOTED TO LOCAL AND SOCIETY NEWS.

TERMS: $1.00 in Advance.

Volume XIV.

FRANKFORT, KY., JANUARY 31, 1891.

Number 21

Pleasureville.

Many of our citizens attended the opening sales of tobacco at the Growers House last Tuesday.

Mr. A. J. Rogers and Mr. Scott, of Waddy, Ky., arrived Tuesday in company with their daughters, who will attend the Central Normal School until its close.

J. D. Magruder, of the L. & N. Railroad, visited friends and sweethearts here last Sunday.

Mrs. Sally Black, of Franklin county, is visiting her son, J. C. Black.

Mr. Walker Scott, of Waddy, visited the Central Normal College a few days this week.

J. E. Nunn, of Simpsonsburg, was in town Wednesday.

Our watchword: Farmers' Alliance.

Noel Lee, of Bald Knob, passed through town last Wednesday en route for Cropper's to visit friends.

Ladies

Realize perhaps more fully than any one else the value of a clear and beautiful complexion, and they will know how difficult it is to attain freshness and beauty, when confronted by so many diseases incident to females that sap their strength and undermine their health. Science progresses. There are two remedies, when in connection, will cure any case of female weakness of short or long standing and restore the individual to perfect health very quickly. Dr. Hale's Household Ointment used in connection with Dr. Hale's Household Tea will accomplish the desired result quickly and better than any other known remedy. Large size 50 cents; sold at South Side drug store.

THAT TERRIBLE COUGH

In the morning, hurried or difficult breathing, raising phlegm, tightness in the chest, quickened pulse, chilliness in the evening, or sneats at night, all are symptoms of the first stages of consumption. Dr. Acke's English Cough Remedy will cure these fearful symptoms, and is sold under a positive guarantee by J. W. GAYLE, Druggist.

THAT HACKING COUGH can be so quickly cured by Shiloh's Cure. We guarantee it. For sale by J. W. Gayle.

Fairview.

The cobblers wife and the blacksmith's mare, among the barest, go most bare."

Mrs. Annie Riner visited the family of J. W. Shoush last Tuesday.

Mr. Wm. Hieatt is expecting to move to Frankfort soon. We hope he will be successful in his change of business.

Mr. Walter Smith and wife were the guests of Wm. Hieatt's family last Sunday.

Mrs. Mary McQuillin lost fifteen yards of green, woolen, double width cloth between Bob Gordon's and Frankfort last week. Any one finding such a bundle will please leave it at the ROUNDABOUT office.

A selected school of consequence at our schoolhouse next Monday, February 24, 1891, conducted by the same teacher who taught the public school. The tuition is reasonable, and parents should not lose the opportunity of educating their children. "What is more important than a child? Governments may pass away; the sun will pass away and the sun sink to rest, but the child enshrines a soul that is to live throughout eternity." The child is properly educated if it grows up in wisdom, its heavenly origin, but if neglected it will grow up a curse to the community and a shame to its parents."

Master John A. Hieatt visited Samie Riner Tuesday.

Mr. John Shoush was in Frankfort Saturday on business.

Mr. James Hieatt, who has rented the Green, Harris farm for this year has moved, but he will live at his brother's until the 1st of March.

Born.—To the wife of William Hieatt, on the 10th inst., a daughter.

Mr. John Burlington, of Graveline, was out hunting last week and captured a black eagle, which measured seven feet three inches.

Following is the report of the Fairview Public School for the term ending January 22, 1891:

Newel Thompson, 95; Anna Riner, 95; Emma Herndon, 95; Florence, 95; Clara Herndon, 95; George Thompson, 92; Samie Hieatt, 95; Minnie Powers, 95; Hurve Herndon, 57; James Shoush, 85; Minnie Herndon,

Royal Baking Powder
ABSOLUTELY PURE

Sam Riner, 94; Priscilla Thompson, 90; Joe Hieatt, 93; Chester Herndon, 93; Oscar Shoush, 82; Johnnie Hieatt, 91; Sue Powers, 90.
G. D. HANCOCK,
Teacher.

We are having splendid weather now. It reminds us of spring.

The school closed here Thursday evening with music and speeches. The pupils have done a good year's work and retire to their homes to rest until next term.

Miss Minnie Herndon was the guest of Anna Riner Tuesday evening.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The excitement caused by this great event is scarcely equaled by that produced by the great discovery of Dr. Miles, the "Nervine Nervine." It speedily cures nervous prostration, change of life, pain, dullness and confusion in head, fits, sleeplessness, the blues, neuralgia, paipitation, heart trouble, pain in the heart and trial bottle free at J. W. Gayle's drug store.

Peak's Mill.

Plenty of mud. The Senator made a flying visit to our city Monday.

Miss Porter Winter visited Miss Lida Church this week.

Mrs. W. P. Marsh, who has been quite ill for some time, is now convalescent.

Miss Mollie Holder is lying quite ill at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. G. Hockersmith.

Mrs. H. C. Church visited her sister, Mrs. J. A. Bell, of Hatton, last week.

Mrs. Lizzie Green left Monday for Louisville, where she will reside in the future.

Rev. Roberts, of the Stamping Ground, is holding a very interesting meeting at this place.

Our Sunday-school is in a very flourishing condition and still on the increase.

Mrs. J. P. Williams, who has been visiting relatives in Bath county for the past month, returned home last Saturday.

To the regret of her many friends, Mrs. John Pierce still remains in a very critical condition.

Miss Cora Webster, of Swallowfield, and Mr. Lyman Graham, of Frankfort, were the guest of the Misses Bon in last week.

Our excellent teacher, Mr. Jones, has, in addition to his day school, a thriving commercial school.

The disappearance of Jeeks from the place of his abode is quite mysterious. It is assumed that the magnet was across the creek, but things have resumed their usual course now and the white horse can be seen passing through the village daily.

"Last, but not least," is the crowning event of the season; an elegant supper and dance given at the home of Mr. J. W. Gayle. The ladies are half-dressed to express the hospitality dispensed to the guests by the host and hostess. All the beauty and chivalry of the country were there, including some of the bright constellations of Frankfort men. More over, and the light fantastic was tripped through the wee small hours of morning.

The Grand Conclave.

The annual conclave of the Grand Commandery of Kentucky, Knights Templar, will be held in this city on the 27th and 28th of May, and the general committee of Frankfort Commandery, No. 4, has already begun work mapping out a programme and making arrangements to make the annual gathering of the Sir Knights a grand success.

Wanted the Family Represented.

We understand that one of the members of the City Council, who was left all around in the distribution of city patronage, thought that, as he had no son, brother or partner eligible to the office of Street Commissioner, his colleagues owed it to him as a courtesy to elect his mother-in-law to that position. As it seems to be the policy of the present city dads to keep the offices in their families, far as possible, the old lady should certainly have been given a chance.

Myriads of cases of rheumatism and neuralgia have already succumbed to that wonderful remedy Salvator Oil. Price 25 cents a bottle.

"A month ago I was happy!" is the declaration of Bryan W. Procter the poet. So were lots of other folks, who are now telling people in decided nasal tones: "Got a toad in my head." But there is still happiness to be secured; a bottle of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure any cough or cold.

Down on Erwin.

The following resolutions were adopted by Forks of Elkhorn Union of the F. & L. U. at their meeting on Tuesday:

WHEREAS, S. B. Erwin, President of F. & L. U. of Kentucky, has condemned the Tobacco Growers Association of this State; therefore be it

Resolved: That the F. & L. U., No. 2167, of the Forks of Elkhorn, Ky., do condemn and denounce said Erwin as an ignoramus and traitor, without the notice of the people he represents.

Resolved: That we have great faith in the Tobacco Growers Warehouse, and urge all tobacco growers to patronize it.

Resolved: That we extend our heartfelt thanks and gratitude to said house for their timely assistance in protecting the tobacco growers of this county from the ravages of the famous warehouse combination.

Resolved: That we request our judiciary committee to immediately take steps to impeach said Erwin and place at our head a man worthy to represent our great cause.

Resolved: That we request our county papers, Courier Journal and all friendly publications to publish these resolutions.

The Well Known Popular Remedies.

Foley's Honey and Tar for coughs and colds. Foley's Cream for roughness of the skin, chapped hands, etc. Clinical ointment and salve. Dr. Newell's Cure is now on sale by The LeCompte & Gayle Co. The large patronage these preparations have received springs from their intrinsic merits as remedial agents. When afflicted by ailments for which they are recommended, you will do well to try them.

Physicians Couldn't Cure Him.

One bottle of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic cured me entirely, after physicians had tried it for 10 months. For 10 months I had been in bed, and had lost 100 lbs. weight.

W. HUNNEMEYER.

People really believe it.

JEROME HILL, Ill., May 30th, 1891.

I take pleasure to let you know that my boy is still all right and not out of bed since the 1st of March 20th. The people can hardly believe it from the fact that he had as many as 15 child all his life but did not show any signs of spasms until last December, after which they were constant, and he was unable to walk, attend to who could do nothing for him, except to lay him down and have him eat when he could eat. Now he is quite well and has gained 10 lbs. weight since he took the Nerve Tonic. After taking one quite a bottle of it he got quite well and has gained 10 lbs. weight since he took the Nerve Tonic.

W. H. LEETON.

I testify to the facts as stated above to be strictly true.

JAS. HANCOCK, Pastor.

Among the Colored Citizens.

Sanford Jackson and Wm. Wilson had a difficulty last week, in which Wilson received a very bad wound in the face.

The Powder Horn Club will entertain next Wednesday night. Judging from the preparations made, they must be expected to have a grand time, as well as a large crowd.

Henry Dorsie is able to appear on our streets again, which friends will be glad to hear.

Henry Robinson is on the sick list this week.

James Veney will leave for Louisville soon, not having left Sunday as was reported.

Thomas Duncan is now the champion of the Legion.

Fifty-one members of Golden Link Lodge attended the funeral of Miss Maggie L. Taylor.

Elder Credit will remove from Louisville to this city in the near future.

Miss Maggie B. Taylor, formerly of this city but now of Louisville, visited her father and aunt this week. Her many friends gave her a hearty welcome.

Col. L. T. Clark headed a large storm party last Saturday night, and after a few songs were sung they were invited to partake of a feast fit for a king—opossums, turkeys, chickens, &c. A great time was had, which lasted until a late hour.

Dr. Hall, the belt man, was in the city this week.

A number of the ladies were entertained at lunch Sunday by friends at Highland Height.

Mr. John H. Thompson had his hand very badly sprained last week, but is now much better.

What's the matter with the H. P. Club? Mr. President, let us have a meeting soon.

The Thanksgiving sermon is the main feature of the Odd Fellow's programme. The annual sermon was prevented by high water last year, but this season the members of the two lodges propose to surpass them selves. The church in which the sermon will be delivered is tastefully and handsomely decorated in Odd Fellow's designs by the lady friends of the members and no pains will be spared to add attractiveness to the scene.

The rain did not prevent a large and select crowd from attending the wedding of Miss Susie Eller and Mr. Charles Galtner on Saturday evening at the First Independent Baptist Church. The affair was conducted in the most elegant taste, and the couple is one of the handsomest that were ever joined in Frankfort. They received many handsome presents and the best wishes of a host of friends.

Among the contestants for the position of teacher in the public school left vacant by the death of Miss Maggie L. Taylor were Messrs. Jerry Hall, Thomas Duncan, Geo. Stell and Miss Luella Dodson. The successful candidate is not known yet.

The Missionary Society had quite a crowd on Sunday and heard some good sermons, elected officers and adjourned to meet the third Sunday in February.

Another meeting to organize a literary society will be held at St. John's A. M. E. Church the second Friday night in February (the 13th). Teachers and all others who desire to take its proper place in literary circles should not fail to be present. Don't forget the date—Friday, February 13th.

A PASTOR REVIEWED.

From the large increase in the attendance, both at Sunday-school and church services, and the deep interest manifested by the public in the service as conducted by their new pastor, it will be seen that the First Independent Baptist Church, this city, is enjoying a season of prosperity, financially and spiritually, unprecedented in its history.

The history of this church has been one of constant difficulties and fightings against adverse circumstances. Notwithstanding the pleasant fact it has been singularly fortunate in having none but men of ability and integrity to administer to its affairs, it has been compelled to meet many difficulties of a financial nature, and to do this by increasing its stamina, but overcomes its difficulties by increasing its members, and counteracts the unfavorable effects of over-exertion, poverty and mental expense in the form of increased laboriousness, loss of appetite and excessive nervousness. The funds of illumination, bountiful secretions and sleep have it a most powerful and reliable auxiliary.

A PASTOR REVIEWED.

From the large increase in the attendance, both at Sunday-school and church services, and the deep interest manifested by the public in the service as conducted by their new pastor.

It will be seen that the First

Independent Baptist Church, this city, is enjoying a season of prosperity, financially and spiritually, unprecedented in its history.

The history of this church has been one of constant difficulties and fightings against adverse circumstances.

Notwithstanding the pleasant fact it has been singularly fortunate in having none but men of ability and integrity to administer to its affairs, it has been compelled to meet many difficulties of a financial nature, and to do this by increasing its stamina, but overcomes its difficulties by increasing its members, and counteracts the unfavorable effects of over-exertion, poverty

and mental expense in the form of increased laboriousness, loss of appetite and excessive nervousness.

Not only does it fortify the system by increasing its stamina, but overcomes its difficulties by increasing its members, and counteracts the unfavorable effects of over-exertion, poverty

and mental expense in the form of increased laboriousness, loss of appetite and excessive nervousness.

These things gratifying as they must be to all whose hearts are in the right place, are not without their drawbacks.

As is known to most, if not all, of your readers this church has recently called to its pastoral care

Mr. William T. Price, a Justice of the Peace, at Richland, Nebraska, was confined last winter with a severe attack of lung fever, but a thorough application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm enabled him to get up and go to work. Mr. Price says: "The Remedy cannot be recommended highly. Let any one trouble with rheumatism, neuralgia or lame back give it a trial and they will be of the same opinion. 50 cent bottles for sale by J. W. Gayle. 17-18

Pronounced Hopeless, Yet Saved.

From a letter written by Mrs. Ada E. Hurd, of Groton, S. D., we quote: "Was taken with bad cold, which settled on my lungs, cough set in and finally terminated my life. For doctors gave me up, saying could not be saved. Then I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, and when I was given it a trial, took in all eight bottles; it has cured me and thank God I am now a well and hearty woman." Trial bottles free at the South Side drug store, regular size, 50¢ and $1.00. 4 P. H. CARPENTER.

A Card.

I desire to say to my friends and patrons that my connection with the LeCompte & Gayle Co. will in no way affect my business at the old store, corner Anna and Broadway, which shall continue to have my closest personal attention.

My two brothers, O. B. and C. L. Gayle, are associated with me. We solicit your patronage.

Respectfully, J. W. GAYLE.

Eupexys.

This is what you ought to have in fact, you must have it, to fully enjoy life. Thousands are searching for it daily, and mourning because they find it not. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our people in the hope that they may attain this boon. And yet it may be had by all. We guarantee that Electric Bitters, is used according to directions, and the use persisted in, will bring you Good Digestion and oust the demon Dyspepsia and install instead Eupexys. We recommend Electric Bitters for Dyspepsia and all diseases of Liver, Stomach and Kidneys. Sold at 50 cents and $1.00 per box at the South Side Drug Store.

It is natural that the Commercial Club, always first in matters of enterprise, should be a determined effort to secure the removal of the capital. But it is doubtful if the young men who are heading this movement have stopped to think that it might be the worst possible thing to do, to take the courts and the Legislature out of the heart of the business of this great city, where there is every temptation to wrong-doing and every invitation to rascality. In a town like Frankfort, where everybody knows everybody else, it is easy to locate members of the Legislature and keep up with their career. In a Rumor says that a marriage will soon come off, both parties well known here, but rumor is told this tale for several weeks and disappears so often that there now refuse to believe madam on oath, although she backs her statements with additional scraps of evidence such as recent purchases of dry goods, a suit of fine clothing and a private purchase of lumber for building.

W. L. Collins, John Burk and John Dooley are the delegates from Pea Ridge, to the County Convention F. & L. U.

Mr. J. Graves preached here last Saturday night and Sunday morning.

Last Saturday night was a big one for our people; 6 o'clock preaching by Bro. Graves, 7 o'clock Alliance speech by Charlie Julian and 8 o'clock Farmer's Alliance meeting.

Mr. Pete Quire, of Flat Creek, who has been visiting Mr. Joel Tracy, has returned home.

Mr. W. Bridgeford, of Frankfort, and Mr. Charlie Julian, of Bridgeport, addressed our people on the 10th and 17th respectively, on Farmer's Alliance. All the speakers were listened to with attention by our people and both gentlemen are cordially invited to come again. It is quite refreshing to listen to these two gentlemen after hearing the recitation of the average speaker who suits all partisanship. Is it a Republican community? If so give 'em slavery, war and wicked rebellion. If Democratic, give 'em rebellion, war and take a whack at the tariff. When it all comes to a close, give 'em a torchlight procession.

When the great sale of undelivered express goods took place in the Court-house yard last summer, quite a number of our people attended and wondered how it was possible for several wagon loads of express matter could miss the owners. One citizen who is in business here has this to say: Last May I shipped a box by Adams Express Co., to Clay City, and took a receipt from the agent at Frankfort, and went to Clay City and asked for my box. It was not there. I waited several times and failing to get the box, I wrote to the agent at Frankfort calling his attention to the matter, and received this postal card:

ADAMS EXPRESS CO.,

FRANKFORT, KY., May 31, 1880.

Mr. _____
Your box left here on the 10:10 train.

Agent.

After repeatedly calling at the Clay City office and writing to the Frankfort office I returned to Frankfort, for several weeks, but still could hear nothing of my box. Believing it lost, I was surprised at the post at this postal:

ADAMS EXPRESS CO.,

CLAY CITY, KY., Dec. 9, 1880.

Your package is here, what shall we do with it.

Agent.

To which I replied: Send to Frankfort.

After calling for several weeks at the Frankfort office and failing to get the box, I one day received this postal:

ADAMS EXPRESS CO.,

FRANKFORT, KY., Jan. 9, 1891.

We have received, etc., box marked etc.,

Agent.

After paying 80 cents for the company's service, very well satisfied, having a better bargain than my neighbors, who attended the Express office, and had to pay 200 miles round and 8 months' storage for 80 cents, and the next time the box goes to Clay City I'll walk and pack it.

At the conclusion of Mr. Julian's speech last Saturday Col. Zeke Yocom's letter was read before the Farmer's Alliance, and was well received. His conclusion was that the Alliance and the Democratic party was especially pleasing, comparing them to the gallant hearted heroes of the stirring times of '61.

Col. Yocom's military record and his well known Democratic principles endeared him to our people; every line of his writing breathes the pure, undaunted spirit of Democracy.

Several ex-rebels here remember when Col. Yocom served on the staff of that great Confederate leader General Shiloh. Col. Yocom died in the moment of victory, while defending his native State on the battle-field of Shiloh, and the annals of military history tell how fearless he met his death.

Col. Yocom will always be a welcome visitor on Pea Ridge.

Sheriff Noel's latest literary work is his "History of Clay County," full of thousand faults which ought to be overlooked in consideration of humor, dry and grim, of 2 acres, value $20, tax $0.07; 1 horse, tax $2.60.

Gentle reader, never quarrel with the law, for the law will bring to the scaffold, he only executes the law. If your name is not in Noel's romance you ought to be satisfied, and if it's not at the immense good company by which you are surrounded.

No rogue ever felt the halter draw, With good opinion of the law."

Change of Base.

LEXINGTON, KY., Jan. 27, 1891.
Dear Neighbors, I am sorry to my numerous friends, I am using this method of letting them know where I am, and what I'm doing by publishing the following notice.

We, Zekiel Yocom, James H. Mulligan, and Claude M. Buckley, have selected the County Clerk's office of Fayette county, Ky., articles of incorporation.

The name of the firm is Yocom, Mulligan & Co., Stilt and Boat Company. Principal and only place of business, Lexington, Ky. The business is the manufacturing of stilts and boats for crossing the streets of the city of Lexington, Ky., only.

The amount of capital stock is sixty thousand ($60,000) dollars, divided into shares of one hundred dollars each, all the stock being paid up. Said corporation to begin business on the first day of February, 1891, and to continue for ten years or longer.

The business to be conducted by Board of Directors, President and Treasurer, who are to be elected annually, the first Monday in February.

The highest amount of indebtedness will not exceed one hundred thousand dollars.

Private property exempt from payment of corporation debts.

Object of said corporation to assist in removing the capital from Frankfort to Lexington, Ky.

ZEKE YOCOM,

J. H. MULLIGAN,

CLAUDE BUCKLEY,

Sold stilts and boats sold only to members of the Legislature, in case the capital is removed.

ZEKE YOCOM.

L. F. GANTER'S MAGIC REMOVER!

NO CURE, NO PAY.

The MAGIC REMOVER fills a long felt want with owners of Horses or Mules with Warts, Knots, Bruises, Cuts, Strains, Sprains, Old Sores, Barb Wire Cuts, etc. It makes no difference how long the knot has been there, or how hard it is, (if it is not on the bone) we will take it off on the "NO CURE, NO PAY" plan. In removing the knot the hair comes off, and the place becomes very sore; when you stop using it, the hair comes back its original color, and not a trace of the knot is left. For plan of insurance, etc., call at the undersigned druggists, and bring your animal with you.
